

The Baptism of Jesus

This is my beloved Son

St. John the Baptist stands on the bank of the river Jordan and pours water on the head of Jesus, standing in the water.

The Holy Spirit descends from above in the form of a dove.

SYMBOLS

The shell of the scallop and the water symbolize baptism.

The fish symbolizes Jesus (The Greek word for fish, ichthus, is an acrostic for Jesus: Jesus Christ, of God the Son, Savior.)

The dove signals the presence of the Holy Spirit.

The Sermon on the Mount

He taught as one with authority

Jesus is seated on the mountain, teaching the multitude. This event is parallel to Moses's receiving the teaching of the Lord (the Torah) on Mount Sinai.

SYMBOLS

The candle on the globe suggests the words of Jesus, "You are the light of the world."

The balances signify the opening words of the seventh chapter the gospel of Matthew, "Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce, you will be judged, and the measure you give will be the measure you get."

In memoriam

Rev. William Henry Hubbard D.D.

Pastor 1886 – 1911

Evangelist, Activist